

TALITHA JUDGE
SENIOR ENVIRONMENTAL CONSULTANT

Background

Talitha has 11 years' experience as an environmental professional working on major road, rail and pipeline infrastructure project sites and undertaking contaminated land and hazardous materials assessments. She excels at solving environmental issues and developing positive relationships within construction teams, clients and community stakeholders. Her key areas of specialization include erosion and sediment control, water management and land contamination.

Qualifications

- Bsc Environmental Science – Micro Biology, Flinders University

Expertise

- Managing all aspects of CEMPs
- Consulting on environmental compliance and legislation

Relevant Project Experience

FKG Group (AUGUST 2016 – SEPTEMBER 2017)

Pacific Highway Upgrade – Woolgoolga to Ballina, Section 4 Waves 3 Early Works
(NSW)

Role Senior Environmental Advisor

Key achievements

- Managing all aspects of CEMP
- Development of Environmental Work Method Statements and Consistency assessments
- Drafting Progressive Erosion Sediment Control Plans
- Environmental reporting
- Drafting ESC Plans as cost effective approach to meet ongoing progress ESC Plan requirements
- Negotiating with client side representatives to speed up approvals for works commencements
- Driver in developing positive relationships with main civil subcontractor

SALINI IMPREGILO (SEPTEMBER 2014 – AUGUST 2016)

North West Rail Link SVC

(NSW)

Role Senior Environmental Coordinator

Key achievements

- Sourcing beneficial reuse construction materials from other projects
- Reuse of waste materials on site e.g. concrete waste
- Organising licensed discharge points for every site preventing post rain surface water transport costs
- Onsite deep burial for water way noxious weed management saving cost of transportation and waste facility disposal
- Reviewing and amending completion works landscaping designs in line with contractual requirements

CLOUGH DOWNER JOINT VENTURE (AUGUST 2012 – SEPTEMBER 2014)

GLNG Upstream Infrastructure Works K128

(Surat Basin)

Role Environmental Site Advisor

Key achievements

- Sourcing local water for large scaled Hydrostatic testing instead of as directed off-site waters
- Trialling product/methods for sediment basin management resulting in implementing cost effective system
- Researching treatment methodology for deactivating chemicals used during steel lines hydrostatic testing, resulting in decreasing spill incidents
- Implementing onsite validation sampling to confirm need for offsite regulated waste as opposed to taking material off site as regulated waste
- Contributing to installation of 400 man camp treated effluent irrigation yard, reducing trucking out waste costs

COFFEY ENVIRONMENTS AUSTRALIA (2007 – 2009) & NOEL ARNOLDS & ASSOCIATES (2009 – JULY 2012)

(Various, Australia)

Role Senior Consultant

Key achievements

- Consulting on environmental compliance and legislation to a range of industries
- Proposal and tender writing
- Scoping and designing deliverables tailored to suit clients' needs in line with company interests and budgets